Former City Manager Ed Thatcher Indicted by Grand Jury

On January 15, 2025, the City of Mount Pleasant was made aware that former City Manager, Ed Thatcher, was indicted by a Titus County grand jury for Making a false entry in a Governmental Record. The indictment stems from an investigation by the Texas Rangers into travel reimbursements issued to City Council members.

Mr. Thatcher served as City Manager from 2019 until his resignation in May 2024. During the investigation of this matter, the City fully cooperated with the Texas Rangers. As this is an ongoing legal matter, the City cannot further comment at this time.

Any questions regarding this matter should be directed to the Titus County District Attorney's Office.
